TALK OF THE TOWN

All 50c stationery 34c at Drown's.

"Onyx" hosiery sale next week at Fitts'.

Mrs. William Stewart of the Morse block is quite seriously ill.

Miss Bessie Benjamin left this morning for Burlington, where she will visit friends over the week-end.

H. T. McDonald of Westboro, Mass., arrived in the city this forenoon to make an extended visit with friends.

Save money. Safety razor blades sharpened for 25c per dozen. The Shaver Co., care of Cummings & Lewis.

David Allen of Ithaca, N. Y., arrived in the city this forenoon to make a few days' visit as the guest of George Murday, Jr.

Mrs. Battista Conciglia of 20 George street was removed to the City Hospital in an ambulance this afternoon. She will undergo an operation.

There will be a meeting of the trustees of the Barre City Hospital at the hotel commissioners' rooms, city hall, Monday morning at 9 o'clock, to meet the architect.

State's Attorney J. Ward Carver and Mrs. Carver of Church street went this forenoon to Marshfield for a week-end visit with the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Carver.

Peter Desautels of Central street returned this forenoon from Winoski, where he was called during the first part of the week by the serious illness of his father, who suffered a shock.

V. DeDomenico, dealer in Italian stationery, who has been spending the past week in Barre, returned to-day to his home at Philadelphia. While in the city he was the guest of Benjamin Gasparilla of Merchant street.

Through the D. A. Perry Real Estate agency the house on Church street owned by H. O. Camp has been sold. The present tenant is State's Attorney J. Ward Carver and the house will be occupied by its new owner June 1.

The North Main street Bull Dogs defeated the Washington Street White Eagles in a juvenile baseball game this forenoon by the score of 19 to 4. The battery for the winners was Follis and Slayton and Jackson, Fastman and Gibson were in the points for the losing team.

Employees of the Consolidated Lighting company were engaged yesterday in transferring three large transformers from the company's station on Granite street to Graniteville, where they will be used to augment the equipment at the new sub-station recently completed midway between Graniteville and upper Graniteville. Each is a 200 kilowatt transformer and together the three will add 600 horsepower to the developing capacity of the Graniteville sub-station.

Miss Lillian B. Cordiner of Hillsdale avenue, who has been making an extended stay in Pittsford, returned home last night. Mrs. John A. Robertson of Bolster avenue returned home last evening, after a three weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. George Murray, in New York City.

Rev. Dr. Samuel Salmond, who has been attending a session of the Newburyport presbytery in Haverhill, N. H., arrived home to-day. Rev. Salmond was elected moderator of the presbytery. He will officiate in the First Presbyterian church to-morrow. James S. Milne, Jr., of Waverly, Mass., an employee of the Massachusetts Bonding company in Boston, arrived in Barre to-day to pass the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Milne, of Liberty street.

John Bank, who has been making an extended stay at his former home in Aberdeenshire, Scotland, arrived in the city this morning from Boston, where he landed yesterday from the White Star liner, Arabic, sailing from Liverpool on April 7. On the same boat came Samuel Gerrard, who has been visiting in England for a few months. A. Nardini, who has been wintering on the sunny slopes of the Italian peninsula, arrived in the city to-day from New York, where he landed yesterday from a French liner. G. Longhini, who has been absent from Barre since 1911, came to the city this morning from Montreal, P. Q., where he visited relatives for a week.

During his three years' absence from America, Mr. Longhini has spent a considerable portion of his time in Africa, returning latterly to Italy for a short stay.

Acting under orders from the city council, the engineering department and men from the street superintendent's office are engaged in posting garbage notices in every available place in the city where violations are likely to occur. Until an effective system for garbage disposal can be set in actual motion, the city fathers are determined to reduce the number of violations of this sort to a minimum. With the departure of the snow there are revealed evidences of a flagrant disregard of the so-called rubbish ordinance in many quarters. The practice of dumping ashes into the streets has been renewed on a large scale in some localities and automobile owners, always among the first to notice the ashes strewn about the streets, have already registered complaints. The posted notices threaten prosecution unless the ordinance restrictions are respected.

Owing perhaps to the balmy spring weather that has finally arrived there was a heavy exodus of people on late forenoon and early afternoon trains to-day, many going to points outside for the week-end. Mrs. George McLean left for northern New York for a week's visit and Mrs. Vestilla E. Drown went to Morrisville, where she will remain for a few days. M. P. Sullivan left at 11:25 o'clock for Sharon and Mrs. O. N. Granger went to Rutland for a short stay. A. H. Burke went to Burlington on business and Alexander Duthie left for Hardwick, where he will be employed by the Woodbury Granite Co.

George A. Pierce has gone to Redstone, N. H., to visit relatives and Thomas Letourneau went to Champlain, N. Y., for a stay of indefinite length. Miss Inez Tubbs went to Northfield for the week-end and John Madden left for St. Albans to be the guest of friends until Monday.

Thomas Clarke, a farm hand employed at the Galvay farm on west hill, met with such injuries while engaged splitting wood yesterday forenoon that for a time it was considered that his condition was serious. A wound five inches in length was cut in his scalp and penetrated slightly into his skull bone. Clarke was at work with a fellow wood-splitter near the farm barns. He was splitting block wood while the fellow workman was cutting brush very close by. While in the act of bringing down his axe upon a block of wood a piece of birch flying from nearby struck his axe and diverted its course. The keen edge of the axe struck a glancing blow across the top of his head. A call was sent to Dr. F. X. Z. Archambault. On arriving at the house Dr. Archambault found the man bleeding profusely from the wound. Seven stitches were required to mend the cut. To-day the man's condition was reported to be as well as could be expected.

TALK OF THE TOWN

All 50c stationery 34c at Drown's.

New line of balmacaan coats at Fitts'. Come to Fitts' next week for suits, coats and skirt values.

Mrs. J. T. Morrill and Misses Annie and Florence Curley of St. Albans and Benjamin Flood of Boston, who were in the city for the funeral of Edward Gorman, left last night for their respective homes. William Gorman, a son, will return this evening to his home in Bethlehem, Pa., while Mrs. Gorman will remain for a week's visit.

Last evening the Modern Woodmen of America held a social dance in the Eagles hall in the Worthen building. There were about sixty people present. During the evening a program of entertainment, consisting of both literary and musical numbers, was carried through. Later in the evening a luncheon was served. The dance was one of the social events to be held by the local camp during the coming few months.

Nicholas Peterson, the "pop-corn man," is back in Barre. Nick's perennial appearance on the streets of this city is in our midst. This time the little vendor has a bundle of interesting tales to tell of his experiences on the Balkan peninsula when Greece was engaged in a death grapple with the terrible Turks. Early in the spring of 1913 Peterson left Syracuse, N. Y., in company with a hundred other Greeks. The party reached Athens in time to enlist with a regiment just then departing for Salonica. In the trenches around Salonica Nick received a bayonet wound in the wrist and was relegated to the rear for a time. That was the only scratch he received and he saw hard fighting for 10 months. While absent he saw a number of local Greeks who returned to the Hellenes on the first call to arms. Among his friends here he exhibits proudly his photograph taken in regimentals after the fall of Salonica. Peterson is accompanied by his brother, Walter Peterson, who will pass the summer here.

A number of prominent local Methodists will go to Hardwick Tuesday to be present at the opening session of the Vermont Methodist conference. Hedding M. E. church has delegated W. H. Oliver and J. A. Field to be its representatives in the conference, although it isn't certain that either will be able to attend. In the contingency that they are unable to be present, alternates will be selected to serve. Mrs. A. W. Gates of Franklin street will attend as a representative of the North Barre Methodist mission, of which she is the treasurer. Rev. E. F. Newell, the pastor, will also be in attendance and one week from to-morrow the usual preaching services at the Hedding church will be omitted. Instead, there will be only the customary Sunday school and Epworth league sessions. In 1909 when the conference met in Hardwick for the first time, Rev. Mr. Newell was the entertaining pastor. According to advice received here yesterday, there is reason to believe that Bishop Edwin H. Hughes will be unable to preside at the conference, although he will make a strenuous effort to be present. He was selected to preside in place of Bishop Bristol, who is ill in Chicago.

MARSHFIELD.

The high school reopened last Monday for the spring term.

Mr. McWain of Rochester is visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. T. Davis.

V. R. Hudson has finished work in the box shop and is employed in the store of Swedberg & Davis.

Mrs. H. O. Baldwin left Wednesday for the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, where she expects to undergo an operation. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. O. L. Beggs.

The Easter exercises were much enjoyed by all present Sunday evening, and the attendance was fairly good in spite of the inclement weather.

A. R. Cole started Friday for the West with another carload of cattle. He was accompanied by Carroll Mears.

In accordance with recent orders from the department, beginning April 6, and continuing for the next two months, all mail on the three rural routes and the star route between here and Cabot has to be weighed by classes and the rural mail counted. This necessitates extra time and labor, and the patrons are asked to facilitate matters by bringing their mail for despatching as early as possible so as to avoid unnecessary rush at mail time.

C. A. Brown of Newport was a business visitor in town recently in the interests of the New England Telephone company.

Mrs. Nellie Buxton is working for Mrs. S. H. Parker, who is in very poor health.

Fred Pitkin returned to Middleton, Conn., Monday, after spending Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Pitkin.

There was a whist party Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Spencer.

George C. McCrillis returned home from Goddard seminary Thursday on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tanner of Montpelier visited at F. H. Tanner's over Sunday.

Mrs. O. D. Cole spent Easter in Barre with her daughter, Mrs. William Inglis.

SOUTH FAIRLEE.

Mrs. W. L. Parker and son have returned home.

Miss Gertrude Wad of Graniteville is teaching the school here and commenced on April 13.

J. J. Bebler is in White River Junction for a few days.

C. S. Rogers has so far recovered from his operation as to be back on the mail route.

Mrs. H. H. Miles and son, Otis, visited several days with his sister, Mrs. O. E. Philbrick, in Barre.

Miss Lillian commences school at Middlebrook April 20.

HARDWICK STREET.

Miss Louise Bayley has returned to her home in Peacham.

Miss Lois Peake has gone back to Johnson, where she is attending school.

Mrs. Maude Atwood and daughter, Clara, are at F. W. Eastman's in Greensboro this week.

Mrs. Kate Eastman has returned to her home in Cabot.

Harold Collins of Greensboro Bend is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Lena Fay.

SPORTING NOTES.

Now that the Federal league teams have been training down south and their make-up is pretty well decided it is possible to compare the clubs intelligently. One dopest has figured the team to finish the order mentioned; Baltimore, Joe Tinker's Chicago team, Mordecai Brown's St. Louis club, Brooklyn, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Buffalo and Pittsburgh.
